OPEN DISCUSSION OF COUNCIL PRESIDENT AND COUNCIL MEMBERS:

- President Compher spoke about getting someone new on board for road repairs. Terri will contact Some contractors and get a evaluation of our roads and repairs needed.
- Mr. Absher asked about the cost of Workmen’s Comp insurance. Terri explained it was shared by Fawn Township and she will present the information on breakdown when she receives it from the insurance company.
- Mrs. Miller asked about a nuisance Ordinance for Boro Properties. Yes, we do Ordinance 2004-3

OLD BUSINESS:

- Rec Commission- Terri reported that she has received keys and calendar for Rec Commission but has not received the books as of this date. President Compher suggested Terri sends a letter to past Treasurer of Rec Commision asking that the books be turned in by August 1, 2023. Bank account to be opened as “Fawn Grove Borough Rec Account”. Council discussed changing all keys/door locks to VFW and Rec Bldg. Terri Will contact a locksmith and see what our options are. Mrs. Colvin made a motion that locks be changed on both buildings it was seconded by Mrs. Miller. Motion passed 4-0

NEW BUSINESS:

- Complaints about mess in Square. It appears that both Antique shops are starting to clean up. There are also 2 properties in Borough that are falling under the Nuisance Ordinance. President Compher will personally speak to both property owners to see if it can be rectified. Hewill report back at the next Council meeting. Apartment building on corner of Mill Street has been sold and new owner is making great improvements on the property.

SOLICITOR’S REPORT:

- Joy Tompkins Subdivision Plan: Deeds have been finalized 6/21/23
- CCIS Agreement and Fee Schedule: Agreement has not been returned yet. Terri is working with Simon on Fee Schedule. Solicitor will send Terri a word doc for editing.
- Park Drive: No ordinances or traffic studies were found
