OPEN DISCUSSION OF COUNCIL PRESIDENT AND COUNCIL MEMBERS:

- Mrs. Miller reported on the Fall into Fitness Festival September 23rd at the park. Rainy but all activities happened inside. Next event is Christmas in the Grove November 18, 2023 at park. Tree lighting at 6:30. Food trucks at Fawn Community Church 3-6 pm. Activities also going on inside church.
- Mr. Absher reported a dead tree in the park is leaning towards the track that probably should be removed. President Compher will check on it.

OLD BUSINESS:

- Rec Updates: 1. Tennis Courts owned by Fawn Twp they will work out electric bill with Boro. Work needs to be done to Rec bldg Terri and President Compher will work on compiling a list and costs and then speak with Township concerning them. 2. AED is expired in Rec Building. Terri will talk to Laura Taylor about how to have it updated. 3. Terri spoke with Shawn Grobel about his knowledge of the Rec Building.
- Dog Laws are governed by PA State laws
- Marsteller Paving submitted a quote on road repairs. We need to make an extended plan on what roads need repaired in the next couple of years. President Compher will do a windshield assessment and a plan will be made. Then bids will be solicited for needed repairs.
- Terri Spoke with Kristin Philips-Hill's office concerning grants. If we submit them information and a plan on our road repair project they will search for Grants that may be available. Anytime we apply for a Grant we MUST have a detailed plan on how the money will be used and what will be accomplished. The more information the better
- Escrow is money collected from Holding Tank owners that is held at the bank in an Escrow account in case someone who has a holding tank refuses to have it pumped and the Borough has to step in a pay to have it pumped. A file of holding tanks is kept in the office.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Quotes were received for cleaning VFW & Rec Building. Mrs. Colvin made a motion to accept quote from Tina L. Williams. Motion was seconded by Mrs. Miller. Motion carried 6-0
